"To act justly, to love tenderly and walk humbly with your God" Micah 6:8

From the Principal

"Be who God meant you to be and you will set the world on fire."

St Catherine of Siena

SRC Meeting

The Student Representative Council had their first meeting on Tuesday during first break. I was impressed by the discussions that were taking place and we look forward to a great year.

Swimming Carnival

Congratulations to McAuley House for their victory at the swimming carnival on Friday. All Houses are to be congratulated for their fine demonstrations of House Spirit on the day. Congratulations to MacKillop on being awarded the House Spirit Trophy.

Year 7 and 8 2015 Enrolments

In order to assist our planning for the introduction of Year 7 in 2015, we have moved our enrolment processes for both Year 7 and 8 2015 enrolments to Semester 1. We wanted to ensure that all parents and students from both year levels are given appropriate opportunities to ask their questions and so we are conducting two separate processes.

The Year 8 2015 Enrolments are now open. Enrolment application packages were given to the Year 7s at the Catholic Primary Schools during the past week. Families with siblings at other local schools are encouraged to collect an enrolment package from the College Office as soon as possible, as first round applications close on Friday 28 February.

I would warmly like to invite prospective students and their parents/guardians to our Year 8 2015 Information Evening on Monday 17 February. Tours of the College will commence from 5.00 pm with the formal presentation commencing at 6.00 pm in the Marian Centre. This is an excellent opportunity to view our facilities and to meet to our staff and students.

God bless

Year 8 Social and Year 8 Parents Wine and Cheese Evening

An invitation has been extended to all Year 8 Parents/Guardians to attend a "welcome" function at the College on Friday 21 February in Lavalla Court commencing at 6.30 pm. This is a wonderful opportunity to connect with other parents and to meet your student's teachers. We hope to see you there!

Student Free Day

Tuesday 18 February will be a Student Free Day due to the Bishop's In-service Day. This important annual event provides the opportunity for the staff from Chanel to join with the staff from Star of the Sea, St John's, St Francis and the Parish. Please note that the College Office will be closed on this day.

P and F Meeting

I would like to invite all members of the Chanel Community to attend our first P and F Meeting for the year on Wednesday 25 February from 5.30 pm – 6.30 pm. Our P and F is not a fund raising committee; however it does make important decisions about how to spend the P and F levies that families pay each year. Please come along and give your input!

Prayer Support

Thank you to the many people who have offered prayer support for our Year 12 Students. Senior students appreciate prayers offered for them during their final year of school which can be a stressful time for them. Thank you once again and you should soon receive your letter of introduction from your nominated student.

Message from the Assistant Principal Pastoral Care - Alison Wales

Last night the parents of our Year 10 and 11 students attended an Information Evening with their child. Information to help students make it through the final years was presented. In this newsletter I have included some information to help, both parents and students, manage the final years of high school.

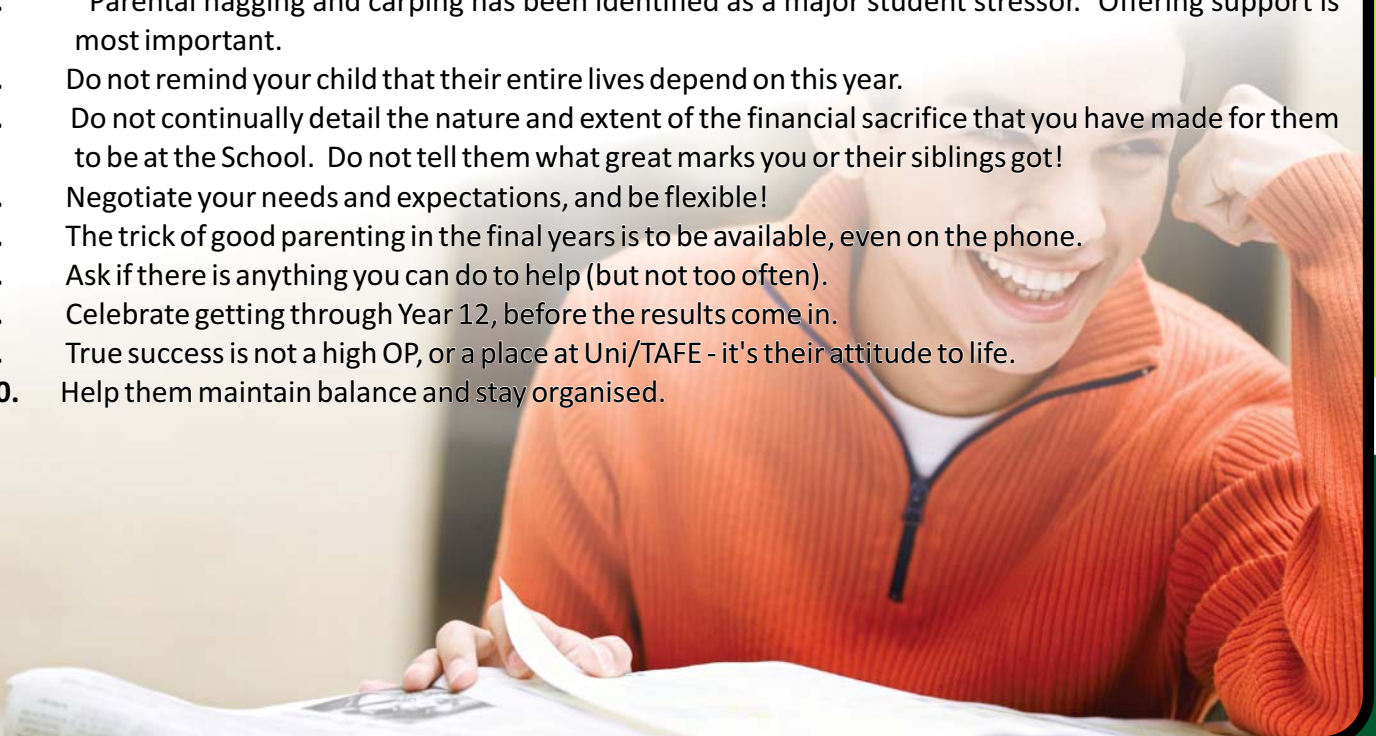

Dr Michael Carr-Gregg is one of Australia's leading Psychologists. He advises the following for both students and parents to help prepare for the final years of schooling.

For Students: 10 Keys To Success In The Final Years

1. Establish a routine - set aside a particular time each day for study and revision and stick to it.
2. Create a study environment
3. Set a timetable - with a timetable you can plan to cover all your subjects in an organised way allotting the appropriate time for each without becoming overwhelmed.
4. Look after yourself - Drink and eat right. Get enough sleep each night - 9.25 hours
Regular physical exercise makes you feel great, boosts your energy and helps you relax.
So try to keep up regular sporting activities or at least fit in some regular exercise.
5. Reward yourself for studying. Watch your favourite television program, spend time with your friends, walk to the park, play sport.
6. Have variety in your study program - study different subjects each day. Do different types of work and revision in each study session.
7. Avoid interrupting your concentration. Have all the appropriate materials with you before you start a session of study to minimise distractions.
8. Test yourself on what you have studied - ask your parents or family members to quiz you on what you have learnt, use draft questions from books.
9. Don't panic during exam time.
10. Ask your teachers for guidance.

For Parents: 10 Keys to Success in the Final Years

1. Whether a student chooses to work this year is entirely up to them. No one can make a young person study. You can't study for them.
2. Parental nagging and carping has been identified as a major student stressor. Offering support is most important.
3. Do not remind your child that their entire lives depend on this year.
4. Do not continually detail the nature and extent of the financial sacrifice that you have made for them to be at the School. Do not tell them what great marks you or their siblings got!
5. Negotiate your needs and expectations, and be flexible!
6. The trick of good parenting in the final years is to be available, even on the phone.
7. Ask if there is anything you can do to help (but not too often).
8. Celebrate getting through Year 12, before the results come in.
9. True success is not a high OP, or a place at Uni/TAFE - it's their attitude to life.
10. Help them maintain balance and stay organised.

Interhouse Swimming Carnival

House spirit, sportspersonship and a healthy rivalry were all on display at the Interhouse Swimming Carnival last Friday, 7 February. The town pool was a sea of Purple, Red, Yellow, Green and Blue with each student wearing their House shirt with pride to show their support for their team. Throughout the day each house was fiercely trying to out-do the other both in and out of the pool. Students demonstrated great athletic ability in the pool in the championship events with some very close finishes were had in many races. The Participation races for the freestyle, breaststroke and backstroke saw some unusual ways to get down the pool; but each student was eager to earn valuable points for their house. A change to the novelty events this year saw around 60 students from each house in the pool competing in the 'Great Beach Ball Race' and the '5 Minute Pool Noodle Swim', which, in the end, turned into 10 minutes because all were having so much fun. Though the highlight of the day had to be the final race; Teachers V Students. Massive support was heard from both sides in the stands and the race was on. Like the rest of the day's races, this race had it all. Lead changes were seen with each new swimmer entering the pool, friendly rivalry and a close finish. Overall this race ended a terrific day of fun, competition and College spirit. Congratulations to all Age Champions and to MacKillop House for taking out the House Spirit Award and to McAuley House as the overall 2014 Swimming Carnival House Champion.

STEPS TO ACHIEVING ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

As we begin Week 3 of this term most students will have established a study routine and have signed up for various extra-curricular activities. I hope that the few tips below will help parents help their children achieve to their potential.

1. Being in the Mood

Many children believe that they need to be in the mood before they begin homework and study. Research says that if you wait for the mood you are unlikely to begin studying! Instead there is ample evidence to indicate that students need to begin their homework in spite of their mood and once they become engaged the mood will follow.

2. Setting a time for Homework

Part of being a student is, unfortunately the fact that you have to study after school. While students do not have a choice about completing homework it is a good idea to give them a choice about when they complete it. Some children will need a break and a snack when they get home; others prefer to get work over with immediately. Negotiate with your child about times and then let him/her try this for a couple of weeks. Sit down and review this and be prepared to let your child try a different time if necessary. Remember establishing a routine is crucial.

3. How much time is enough?

Schools often suggest approximate times for students to spend on homework depending on their year level. These can be used as a general guideline but children are individuals and learn at different rates so let common sense prevail. If your child is not in the habit of studying agree to start with short periods of 10-15 minutes and gradually increase this as needed. Periods of 20-30 minutes when a child is trying to learn something new is sufficient and better for retention. Encourage your child to take a short 5 minute break every 30 minutes and they will learn more effectively.

4. Healthy snacks

Many children like to snack when they are studying but it is essential that the food they are snacking on is brain-friendly food. Having small containers of fruit, veggies, nuts or yoghurt available in the fridge at eye level will make it more likely that children will munch on these. Keep the biscuits and chippies out of sight!

5. Keeping in contact with teachers

If your son or daughter is establishing a routine, doing their best but still not able to complete the work contact the Pastoral Coordinator so that both school and home can work together to support your child to achieve. Most of the above is applicable to our Junior students as our Senior students are likely to be independent learners.
