Term 3 Week 8
VOLUME 50

"To act justly, to love tenderly and walk humbly with your God" Micah 6:8

From the Principal

The Leadership Team of the College is currently conducting the Student Leadership Interviews for 2018. The calibre of the applications submitted by the candidates is very impressive, as is the way that they have responded to the questions asked during their interviews. We are always very proud of our students, and these young men and women who will be our College leaders next year are no exception – they are articulate, great role models, have strong principles and are committed to 'giving back' to the College in 2018.

The style of leadership that we follow at Chanel is servant leadership as modelled by Jesus. Like Jesus, servant leaders nurture a kind and gentle heart that guides decisions and actions (Matthew 6:19-24). Servant leaders prioritise the needs and interests of others ahead of their own. The servant leader is more interested in giving than receiving, and feels indebted rather than entitled. The servant leader is a steward who wants to promote the wellbeing of all members of his/her community. While some students will occupy formal leadership positions, all Year 12's are recognised as leaders and all are called to live out our College motto, "To Live Justly", mindful of Jesus' teaching that "Whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant" (Mt 20:26).

Year 12 QCS Test

Congratulations to the Year 12s on the successful completion of the QCS Test this week. We are very proud of you all. Thank you to the staff, students and parents who prepared the Year 12 breakfast before the tests each morning – a wonderful example of servant leadership in action!

Planning for 2018

Planning for 2018 is well underway. We would appreciate it if information regarding any student who is not intending to return to Chanel in 2018 could be provided in writing to Ms Dyer at the College Office as soon as possible.

Triple P to stay free for all Qld families!

Free access to world-renowned parenting program Triple P is here to stay – for the next three years!

More than 85,000 parents, carers and grandparents have picked up new positive parenting skills and strategies (that really work!) since the program was first offered for free two years ago. And new funding means parents of both younger children and teenagers can continue to access specialised Triple P programs anywhere in Queensland, online or in person.

Queensland mother Naomi Stantiall did Triple P Online when her 5-year-old son was diagnosed with ADHD. "He wasn't following instructions and was getting angry and aggressive. Now he can express himself better and control himself a bit more."

To find out more, register for seminars and groups, arrange one-on-one support or do the program online visit www.triplep-parenting.net

"Wishing all our students the very best of luck next week when they sit their Term 3 exams."

Sincerely

Dr Susan Bunkum PhD

Market TO Market

Today, farmers' markets are a staple event of any foodie's weekend, they allow people to enjoy fresh, quality and well-priced produce. With this in mind the Year 10 Hospitality class have spent term 3 working as a group to research and develop products to sell at a market day. To do this they had to learn about the principles of food safety, preserving techniques and nutritional requirement to ensure their products were a high quality and what their target audience wanted. They then applied this knowledge to prepared homemade jams and created modern day cakes, slices and biscuits packet mixes in a jar. At the Market day the Hospitality class sold samples of their products, with rave reviews of all from their customers. Thank you to everyone who supported our first Market day stall.

BOOK WEEK

Last week Chanel College celebrated Book Week with a number of book related activities held in the library and around the school. We had a find Wally competition, where students had to find where Wally was hidden around the school; A library scavenger hunt where students had to complete a number of tasks to collect stars then went into a draw to win house points; Delaney's Home Room Book Quiz and Charlies Cryptic Riddles, were written by Chapter Chatters students and were well received by all.

We also celebrated with a Best Dressed Character Competition, Staff and Students came in their favourite character dress and it was wonderful to see so many different and imaginative characters. The Best dressed teacher was Mr Hayes dressed as K from Men in Black and the best dressed student was Enid who dressed as Cruella De Vil from 101 Dalmatians.

The Book Week Theme was "Escape to Everywhere", reminding us of places we visit and the people we meet when we escape into a book. The library was transformed and displayed a variety of fantasy worlds such as, Narnia, Camp Half-Blood, Terabithia and the Secret garden.

Thank you Chapter Chatters and well done to everyone who participated in the Book Week activities, it was a great week.

Coming up in the library in week 10, we have Chanel's Great Book Swap. Bring a book – Swap and Book, Buy a book for the cost of a gold coin.
