TERM 3, WEEK 1

Justice Respect Compassion

From the Principal - Dr Susan Bunkum PhD

CELEBRATING
CATHOLIC EDUCATION
IN QUEENSLAND

Dear Parents/Caregivers

Catholic Education Week will be celebrated across Queensland from 29 July – 4 August this year.

This annual event is held to promote the special ethos of Catholic schools and to highlight the great things that take place in Catholic schools every day.

The theme for this year's celebrations is: Discovering New Horizons.

Catholic education strives to make a difference in the lives of those in our schools and in the wider community by challenging young people to live out the message of Jesus and to reach their full potential as compassionate, contributing, life-giving members of society.

During Catholic Education Week 2018, Catholic education communities across Queensland are invited to celebrate how they are discovering new horizons.

There are 304 Catholic schools in Queensland that educate around 147,000 students and employ more than 19,000 teachers and staff, and most will celebrate Catholic Education Week in some way.

Our school is planning a number of activities during the week and we hope you are able to join in the celebrations with us.

I thank you for your ongoing support and look forward to seeing you during Catholic Education Week 2018.

Sincerely

Confraternity & QISSN

I extend my "Congratulations" to all students who competed in the QISSN and Confraternity Shield competitions in the first week of the holidays. While a full account of the wonderful achievements of both teams is included in this newsletter, I must say that I was immensely proud of all members of both teams.

In the week before they left for Charters Towers a member of the Confraternity Team told me that to be able to wear the Chanel College jersey was an honour and that each member of the team would wear it with absolute pride. Being present at several games of both Netball and Rugby league, I can attest to the truth in this statement for all of the boys and girls who represented Chanel. At all times, both on and off the field, our students were exemplary in every way.

I extend my thanks to all members of staff who accompanied our students to these competitions for without their support such wonderful opportunities would not be possible. I also thank all those families who travelled to support their sons and daughters for what will no doubt, be a truly memorable event in their school lives.

New Staff:

As a College community, we warmly welcome:

- Mrs Dina Hasaneen who has taken up the position of Inclusive Curriculum Leader. Dina has moved from Adelaide to Gladstone and has extensive experience in both Inclusive Curriculum and ESL.
- Mr Calvin Bennett who has had experience teaching both in Australia and overseas has replaced Mrs Jade Van Krimpen who is on leave for the remainder of this year.

We are delighted to have both Dina and Calvin at Chanel!

Catholic Education Week – 29 July – 4 August

Catholic Education Week is an annual state-wide event that promotes the distinctive mission of Catholic schools throughout Queensland. The week is celebrated by all schools through a range of activities, liturgies and events.

The theme for Catholic Education Week this year, "Discovering New Horizons", has been aligned with the official Year of Youth theme for 2018 and is derived from a speech given by Pope Francis at World Youth Day 2016 where he called young people and the Church to 'open new horizons for spreading joy': 'My friends, Jesus is the Lord of risk, he is the Lord of the eternal "more". Jesus is not the Lord of comfort, security and ease. Following Jesus demands a good dose of courage, a readiness to trade in the sofa for a pair of walking shoes and to set out on new and uncharted paths. To blaze trails that open up new horizons capable of spreading joy, born of God's love and wells up in your hearts with every act of mercy.'

Events during the week will include: a Liturgy, activities organised by the Student Representative Council, CEW Quiz, Chanel Shirt Day and all students participating in 'Acts of Kindness' (Pastoral Care/individual activity). We hope this week will be one of celebration.

Because of Her We Can!

NAIDOC WEEK 2018

This year's Naidoc theme is 'Because of her, we can!'. As this was my first Naidoc Liturgy I wanted to make sure it reflected the powerful message 'Because of her, we can!' and I am pleased to say that feedback I received from staff and students was that the Liturgy reflected this.

As pillars of our society, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women have played – and continue to play - active and significant roles at the community, local, state and national levels. They are our mothers, our elders, our grandmothers, our aunties, our sisters and our daughters. Their achievements, their voice, their unwavering passion give us strength and have empowered past generations and paved the way for generations to come.

I would also like to say a special “Thank You” to students, Enid Keppel and Lincoln Rebel, who took on the daunting task of reading in front of the school along with myself and the student leaders. These students did such an amazing job and should be very proud of themselves.

NAIDOC WEEK MASS IN ROCKHAMPTON

This week I had the privilege of attending NAIDOC Mass in Rockhampton with students from Chanel College. This was the first time in several years that Chanel has attended this Mass and it was a privilege to have Miss Leesa Jeffcoat - Diocesan Director of Catholic Education in the Diocese of Rockhampton, personally acknowledge Chanel College and present our College with a gift in recognition of this year's NAIDOC theme 'Because of her, we can!'. Special thanks to students, Enid Keppel and Jossie Law, for accepting the gift on behalf of Chanel College.

A sincere “Thank You” to students Jack Fallon, Jossie Law, Enid Keppel, Gypsy Thorn and Jaylin Law for representing our College and displaying exemplary behaviour whilst attending NAIDOC Mass. “Thank You” also to Kate Fontana Hasaneem for her Inclusive Curriculum and Teacher Assistant and these students.

Black Dog Institute

Did you know? The term “Black Dog” was coined by Winston Churchill who used it to describe his own depression. His famous salute, as depicted by the BDI logo, represents a victory sign that casts a shadow of a black dog, a metaphor for a disorder that 'shadows' a person even when his or her mood is upbeat and 'victorious'. Ultimately, the logo promotes the notion that the positive is more powerful than the negative.

In the last week of Term 2, Chanel welcomed Dale from the Black Dog Institute who presented to our junior and senior students on the importance of being aware and looking after our mental health and wellbeing. Dale spoke about the signs and symptoms of mental illness, how to seek help and support friends. Improving mental fitness was also a key focus of the presentations where students were encouraged to continue developing coping strategies and building resilience. Thank you to Dale and the Black Dog Institute for your time and dedication to supporting mental wellness. For further tips on improving your mental fitness, check out the online Bite Back Mental Fitness Challenge.

Kingfisher Bay Resort

Fraser Island

Kingfisher Bay Resort Experience

Recently Year 12 Certificate II in Tourism, Hospitality, and Business students participated in a work placement experience at Kingfisher Bay Resort, Fraser Island.

Over three days, the students worked alongside staff at the Resort in a variety of positions. These included, kitchen, food and beverage service, reception, housekeeping, porters, and the rangers. All of these offered an insight into working at a resort, and the students learned many new skills.

The students also saw many of the behind-the-scenes operations involved in managing a resort in an off-shore location.

They were all treated to meals prepared by international chefs, and worked with staff who are from all over the world, including Nepal, Argentina, and The Netherlands.

Ms Going and Ms Di Bartolo thank and acknowledge the students for their behaviour, attitude, and application to their jobs while at the resort.

Chanel College WINS the Physics of Flight Competition!

On Wednesday 27 June, Chanel College hosted the fourth annual paper plane throwing competition which was again sponsored in part, by the Queensland Minerals and Energy Academy (QMEA). As part of the Physics Unit studied by Year 7 students at the College during Term 2, students in the Year 7 classes had an opportunity to design, modify and then experiment with their paper airplanes and experience all the different forces at work. Representatives from each class were then chosen to be part of the Chanel Team and then practised every Friday for eight weeks with the main objective being for their design to stay in the air for as long as possible.

Other Year 6 students from St John's, Star of the Sea and St Francis schools, were also invited to come and show their powers and prowess in the Physics of Flight. They too had also practised and perfected their designs not to mention their costume design which they wore on the day. St Francis also won the, "Most Vocal Team", while other awards included, the longest flight time (9.00 seconds), most imaginative design and after two hours of intense rivalry, the Chanel team had the greatest cumulative time spent in the air followed by St John's. A huge word of thanks goes to the Science teachers from the other schools who prepared and enthused their teams. Well done to the Chanel team!

Celebrating Success

Well done to all students who have received a completed sheet of Celebrating Success, congratulations on your consistent effort towards learning.

Congratulations to our Semester 1 Winner

Jacob has won himself a pass to Gladstone Cinemas. Great work Jacob, enjoy your well-deserved prize.

WHAM day

Week 11 in Term 2 saw the Year 8's participate in the College's Wellbeing, Health and Mindfulness Day (WHAM!). The students participate in this day as a part of the Pastoral Care Program that is presented at the College. They were lucky enough to participate in a Laughter Workshop presented by Sue-Ellen Pashley and a Mindful Eating Workshop presented by Dietician, Meagan Leane. The students reflected on their strengths and completed some creative therapies on that reflection.

The day concluded with a Life Books Session where members of the Chanel and Gladstone Community spent time with our students in small groups to talk about resilience, positive choices and how to bounce back from hard times and be successful.

Top ten tips for parents of teenagers

- 1. Be the kind of adult you want your kids to become. Actively decide to lead by example. Really think about what you do and say (and how you say it) every day.
- 2. Save your energy for important issues. Try to avoid knee-jerk or instinctive reactions, especially if you often disagree. Rather than react immediately, pause to think about whether the issue is important in the long term, and about other ways to respond.
- 3. Remember their brains are easily switched to 'high alert'. Avoid triggering your teenager's automatic 'fight or flight' response when you want to talk to them. Ask them if it's a good time to talk; sit down; use a calm, gentle voice; find out more about their feelings.
- 4. Timing is everything. Only talk about problem issues when everyone's calm and relaxed, not busy, stressed or in a hurry. Schedule a meeting, and agree beforehand that as a family, you will calmly explore issues so you can all get along better.
- 5. Learn a new language. Break the habit of speaking to your teenager as you did when they were younger. Try chatting with them more like you would with a work colleague or acquaintance. Share ideas, offer choices, negotiate; value their contribution.
- 6. Teach risk-evaluation skills. Prompt your teenager to think about potentially risky situations ahead of time, and to consider the likely outcomes of various choices. Rather than lay down the law, ask 'what if...' questions and help them to come up with possible options and action plans.
- 7. Stay in touch. Have regular positive conversations about day-to-day activities so you know what your teenager is doing, and keep up to date with new technology. Ask them to show you what they're interested in and how it works.
- 8. Involve them in making decisions. Allow for change as they become older. Help them take on new responsibilities. Be flexible and let them have a say wherever possible. Hold family meetings so they can contribute ideas and have their opinions heard and valued.
- 9. Turn the 'need for novelty' and peer group acceptance into a positive. Help your teenager find supervised group activities they enjoy. Regular activity – even if it's not sport – and good eating and sleep patterns are vital for physical and mental health. Limit screen time appropriately.
- 10. Be a safe sounding board. Teenagers' emotions are often intense, and they're struggling to find their place in the world. Encourage them to discuss new ideas and values at home, without rejection or ridicule. Help them figure out problems and possibilities.

TOURISM

On Thursday 19 July, the Year 11 & 12 Certificate II in Tourism students worked as Cruise Ambassadors with the arrival of the Pacific Eden into Gladstone.

The students had undergone training provided by GAPDL earlier this year, and this was their first opportunity to put it into practice.

The cruise started in Sydney, and Gladstone was the second stop, so the passengers were keen to disembark and explore East Shores and the Gladstone region. The students were on hand to assist, take photos, and provide information and directions.

2018 Inter-House Athletics

What better way to end the term and the Semester, than two jam-packed days of athletics. We were blessed with beautiful weather, which made for ideal conditions for students to compete. Attendance was at an all-time high and participation in all track and field (especially on the track) events was the best it has been for many many years. This made for a very competitive and close carnival – would a new House be crowned Champions, or would Futuna continue to dominate Interhouse sport?

Day 1 saw records tumble both on and off the track. Students were pushing themselves to the limits and it showed in their results. Congratulations to the students below who broke records and have set new standards for students next year to aim to beat. It was a sea of colour out on the oval – all students proudly wearing the green, blue, purple, red and yellow house shirts and encouraging all in their House to get in and give everything a go. The staff were keen to get the Carnival underway and this rubbed off on the students, as they were eager and excited to get on with and compete in the events. The 100m event is definitely the 'big ticket' event of Day 1, and it lived up to all expectations. Luckily we film the end of the races, because it was needed in almost every 100m race, with some student literally falling over the line to try and get every ounce of energy out of themselves to take out the race. Those with the fastest times in all age groups were crowned 100m winners, no heats, just straight finals and this adds to the intense and close races we get. The top 10 fastest runners in each age group earn themselves a spot in the Chanel Gift race. A handicap race, with the fastest runner (this year was Ronan McGuire) starting at the 110m mark and the other nine runners being placed mathematically ahead of Ronan. Times were very close so the stagger this year was not very great. Sophie Duff was the Gift winner from last year, and she was out to make it two in a row. The race was fast and very very close – with the result again coming down to a photo finish. Ronan and Jett Cavanagh almost mowed down the runners ahead, proving no head start will ever be enough for these two boys!! Congratulations to Sophie on making it two Chanel Gift wins in a row. The overall points were extremely close at the end of Day 1 with Marcellin House just behind Futuna.

2018 Athletics Carnival

Day 2 is dress up and House theme day. This year, however, I would have to say it was the staff, in particular the MacKillop House staff, who took the prize for best dressed, or should that be worst dressed!! Another beautiful day greeted the students, with only two track events and three field events to go. More records were broken and again participation in all events was tremendous. Today it was the high jump event that had the crowds captivated – watching both the boys and the girls leap over the bar which was set at some pretty lofty heights. All students look forward to the relay events which end the Carnival and again, these races would end up deciding the Champion House for the Carnival. Every house entered a team in every relay, again showcasing the fabulous House spirit. We saw some flawless baton changes, some not so controlled change overs, some unusual running styles and some falls and drops. This all added to the competitive races and the massive noise that could be heard from the start to the end of the races. The relays truly end the Carnival on a high and sorted out the finishing order for House Champions.

My favourite part of the Athletics carnival is watching ALL students go to their age group event and support each other. It is a Chanel tradition and one not seen in many places-all students in every age group go to the event, and whether competing or assisting the teachers, all the students are there to support each other. This defines a school and this defines the true House and College spirit at Chanel.

Congratulations to all Age Champion students. You all pushed yourself to the limits over the two days and produced some outstanding and exciting results. You represented yourselves with pride and led from the front. For their teamwork, dress-up, sun safety, war cries, participation and help over the two days of the Carnival, MacKillop House were awarded the House Spirit award. Congratulations to all MacKillop House students and staff on your outstanding Spirit at the Athletics Carnival. Results were tight all throughout the Carnival, but it came down to sheer numbers in events and the relays. Congratulations to Futuna House on being crowned 2018 Interhouse Athletics Champion House. They have produced another 3-peat of the Interhouse Carnivals and now remain unbeaten for four years. It is a credit to your willingness to get in a give it a go and participate in any event you can. Congratulations Futuna House students and staff.

I would like to thank all staff for their assistance in running events, setting up and ensuring the Carnival ran smoothly. It is great to hear students comment that the staff on the events were encouraging them and giving tips. Special mention to the HPE staff for their tireless work in the lead-up to the event. They are a great team and Chanel is lucky to have such great HPE staff. It was great to see so many parents come to the carnival and support their children and all students. Thank you parents for your support.

This brings a close to the 2018 Interhouse Carnivals. Bring on 2019 and the challenge is once again set – who will finally break Futuna's dominance of the Interhouse Carnivals.

Silver Medal

for the 2018 Chanel College QISSN Netball Team

What an amazing result from the nine Chanel QISSN girls a Silver medal to finish 2nd in Division 3 and 18th overall out of 64 schools. This is not only the best result ever by a Chanel team, but the first time a Chanel QISSN team has taken home a medal from the Carnival. Congratulations to the 2018 QISSN team!

Townsville was the host venue for this year's QISSN carnival and it proved to be a very happy hunting ground for the team. Flying in early on the Saturday, the team soaked up the sights of Townsville and all the players were fresh and ready to take on the competition. At the Opening Ceremony on the Sunday, former Australian Diamonds player Sharon Finnan addressed the players and challenged them to strive and play beyond what is expected and to push the boundaries of their abilities. I think this message was well and truly taken in by the Chanel girls as they started with a bang on Day 1.

Three players made their QISSN debut (Rykhiah Woolley, Bojana Bijelic and Alisha Verner) on Day 1, but you would not have known, as they blew their opposition (St Ursula's Toowoomba and St Michael's Merrimac) off the court. The zone defence and hands up pressure over every pass, caused frustration for the opposing teams and led to turn-over and after turn-over being won by the Chanel team. This defence pressure would be the trademark of the team and something other teams tried to replicate, but could not sustain. The crisp passing through the midcourt (from Imogen, Bojana, Alisha, Rykhiah and Alexa) was fast and accurate into the shooters (Kaitlyn, Hannah and Imogen) who were on target from the very beginning. Keeping the teams to below twelve goals for a half hour of netball is no mean feat, but the defensive duo of Katie and Grace outsmarted, outrebounded and outplayed the opposition shooters.

Day 1 ended with two wins and one loss, a fantastic start to the campaign! Day 2 began with one of our players having to leave the team due to illness, but the eight remaining girls fought on to show and play outstanding team netball. We started the day the same way as the previous – defensive pressure that frustrated our opposition into turning over lots of ball. Again the slick moves from the defence end, through the mid court and into the shooters (who even started to pull out the no-look passes and quick 1-2 to each other in the circle) was the highlight of the games.

The Chanel team was starting to make a name for itself because of great defence and it was catching the eye of all teams in our pool and from those watching on the sideline. Unfortunately, during the game, Rykhiah rolled her ankle and was forced from the court. She would not return, but the players were determined to get the win for her and continue their outstanding performances.

We were down to seven players for the remainder of Day 2. This served as a driving force for the girls to get out on court and show what they were made of. The last game of Day 2, and probably the game that turned the mindset and desire of the team, was a hard fought and very tight draw against Mount Alvernia College. It was end to end netball, with no lead ever bigger than 1 goal throughout the entire game. The girls held their nerve fantastically for the game, having to make the last shot of the game to get the draw. They did not like the feeling of not getting the win, and this drove them to perform even better in the coming days. Grace Graham even got interviewed after the game (for the live stream of the QISSN Carnival). She answered the questions superbly and showed true leadership qualities.

Day 3 is traditionally a rest day, but with the increase in the number of teams to 64, the QISSN teams now do not have the luxury of a day of rest. So this was the last of the pool games, and to give ourselves the best opportunity to make the finals the team needed to finish in the Top four of Pool C. The nerve and stamina of the team would be tested, with only eight players for the remainder of the competition and the prospect of a top four finish on the cards. Well did the girls come out firing or what? After an inspirational pep-talk from Captain Grace Graham, the girls again frustrated their opposition with their defence.

It was the work of the mid-court and shooters that really stood up in these games. The player combinations were on fire and the ball speed was way too much for our opposition to handle. A six goal win against St Peter Claver College set up a must-win game against St Luke's Anglican School to finish in the top two of the pool. The Confraternity boys were on hand to support the team for this game, and the extra support spurred the girls on to put in a stellar performance and finish the pool games with a win and 2nd in Pool C. This would ensure that the girls could win their way into the gold medal match for Division 3.

The Quarter Final game was against Canterbury College which finished 3rd in Pool D, the winner would progress to the major Semi-Final for a spot in the Grand Final. The girls were up for the challenge and determined to prove to themselves that they could win and make the Grand Final. After a shaky start, being down by three at half time, we set the challenge to the team- 'if you really want to win this game, then show us you want it out on that court!' They responded in true form – pulling off intercepts and rebounds, causing held balls from their opposition, transitioning from defence to attack with lightning speed and treasuring possession when they had the ball. These key areas proved to be too much for Canterbury College which crumbled under the pressure – the girls got the win 19-16 and moved into the major Semi-Final.

Their opponents would be the very first team they played, St Ursula's Toowoomba. Even though they had improved results, the Chanel girls would not let them or any other team stand in their way of making it to their first Gold Medal playoff. St Ursula's tried to go through the Chanel defensive wall in attack, which worked at the beginning of the game, but the energy sapping effort it took them showed in the second half when the speed of play from the Chanel girls tore the St Ursula's team apart. The team was clicking beautifully at the end of the Carnival and the skills and teamwork on the court was always 110%. A 20-11 goal win sent the girls off to the Gold Medal match.

Grand Final Day, and for the first time, a shot at the Gold Medal and top of Division 3! From the get-go the girls stepped out onto court and put on display the true Chanel spirit, backing each other up in defence, pulling off amazing intercepts, and transitioning down the court with accuracy of passes and shots. Shalom College stepped up the defensive pressure which caused the Chanel girls to turn over ball, they were starting to look rattled and half time could not come soon enough. Six goals down at half time and coming off the court annoyed and disappointed with their efforts in the first half the message was clear – if WE want this game WE need to win it; get the Chanel defence right and the goals will come. If a message was to ring true, then this was evident from the first centre pass – they broke Shalom's possession and worked the ball to the shooters who shot the goal, and with that the confidence in their game returned. A gutsy final twelve minutes they played to claw back each of those six goals and eventually draw even with seconds remaining. Shalom had the last play of the final and managed to sink the goal.

Heartbreak for the girls, but they proved to themselves that no goal deficit will be enough to allow the opposition to think they have the Chanel team beaten! Only the clock will defeat them!

Congratulations to Grace Graham who was awarded Chanel College MVP of the tournament for the team – your leadership on and off the court was outstanding, your work in defence was tireless and whenever we needed a turnover, Grace was the player to provide this.

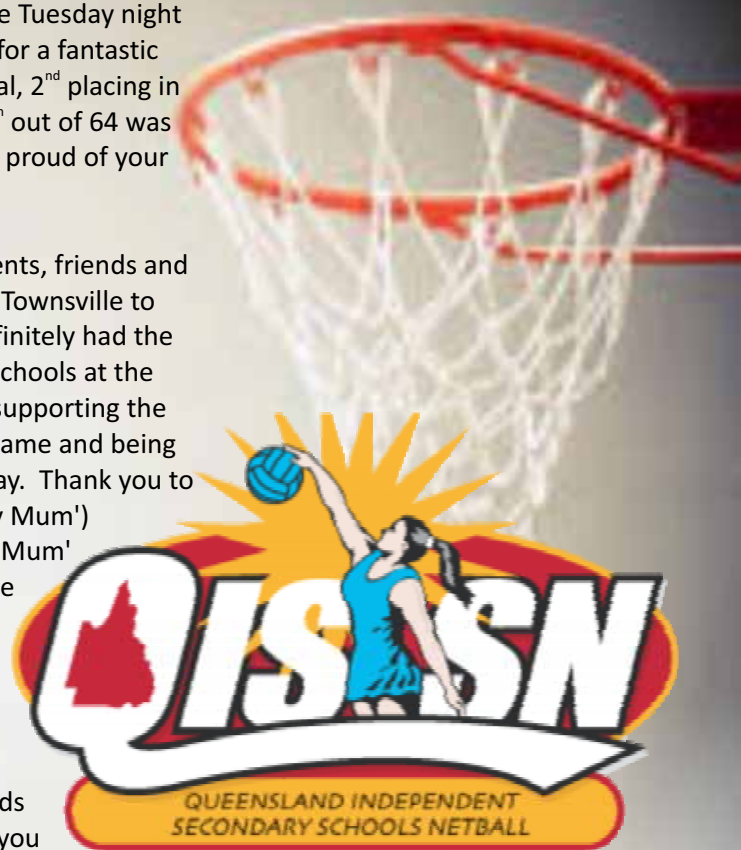

Congratulations to the nine girls who represented Chanel at the QISSN Carnival – you did so with the highest level of skill, teamwork, sportspersonship, respect and fun. The six months of training and playing in the Tuesday night competition primed you for a fantastic carnival and a silver medal, 2nd placing in Division 3 and overall 18th out of 64 was an outstanding result. Be proud of your efforts as we all are.

Thank you to all the parents, friends and families who travelled to Townsville to support the girls. We definitely had the best support crew of all schools at the Carnival – thank you for supporting the team at each and every game and being there for the girls each day. Thank you to Mrs McAlister (aka 'Netty Mum') for being our scorer and 'Mum' whilst at the Carnival – we loved hearing you support us from the bench. Massive THANKS to Mrs Lisle our team Assistant Coach and Manager – someone needs to keep me in check and you did a fabulous job at this!!

Your coaching tips, encouraging words of wisdom, giving up a week of your school holidays to come away with the team and support of the team was greatly appreciated.

Congratulations again to the 2018 QISSN Netball team – Silver medal 2nd in Division 3 and 18th overall out of 64.

CONFRATERNITY CAMPAIGN 2018 CHARTERS TOWERS. MISSION ACCOMPLISHED!

Please find the blow-by-blow description submitted by Joe Romagnolo and Liam Coleman who gave of their time to support our squad with Touch Judging and sideline duties. Many thanks to these past students for their generosity.

Game 1: Chanel def Gilroy Santa Maria College Ingham 16 - 0

The most anticipated event of the year was underway, and the boys came out of the blocks firing. Some intelligent running by Nic Holmes and Cameron 'Fitzy' Fitzsimmons, led to Ronan McGuire crossing over the line in the 2nd minute. Off the back of some immaculate ball skills from Tallis Stanhope, Jet Cavanagh was fortunate enough to grab his first ever Confro 'meat pie'. The first half ended, but not before Ronan McGuire used his profound quick hands to dish the ball to Keenan for another one. A valiant team effort, cultivated by Josh Rigby, led to Fitzy dotting down over the line. This well-rounded team performance allowed the team to register a thoroughly deserved 16-0 win. Congratulations to Ronan on picking up the MVP award for the game.

Game 2: Xavier College Hervey Bay def Chanel 16 - 12

After a strong Game One, the team was raring to go, although missing their spiritual leader Tallis Stanhope to concussion - as a result of some friendly fire in the previous game. The team was out with a point to prove, embodied by Bailey Audet and Chase Gourley's hard hitting defence. As the game progressed, they found themselves in the midst of a ferocious battle. This arm wrestle swung the way of Xavier College of Hervey Bay firstly, until a piece of phenomenal skill from Nic Holmes led to yet another Ronan McGuire try. To back up that excellent display of skill work, Lincoln decided to one up Nic regathering a ricochet off the left upright from a well-directed 'grubber' kick to score himself an opportunistic try. Although the team played amazingly, they fell short, as the opposition, Xavier Catholic College, scored in the last minute to win 16-12. Kudos to Fitzy for bagging the MVP honours.

Game 3: Chanel def St Augustines College, Augustine Heights, 36 - 0. After a disappointing result on the previous day, the team came out of the gates with something to prove. It didn't take long for Fitzy to find a way through the defence, putting Ronan over in the first minute of the game. The boys didn't drop off though, with some inspired kick returns from Ethan Ellis and Lachlan Pacheco leading to favourable field position and a further two tries in the first half - shared by Bailey Audet and Jet Cavanagh. The second half was just as strong, with the team scoring three more tries, with two of them snavelled by Tallis, with Craig Fleiter pouring through the line untouched to grab the other. The end result was 36-0, with Tallis Stanhope grabbing the MVP honours for the game.

Game 4: Chanel def Shalom 30 - 0. The stage was set for a huge battle between two heavyweight teams of Chanel College and Shalom, but who would come out victorious? Any doubt surrounding the boy's ability quickly dissipated, as Cameron Fitzsimmons made the Shalom defence look lacklustre, crossing under the posts in the opening minutes of the match. The team battled hard all game; with marvellous hit ups from Craig Fleiter and some excellent finishing by Lachie Black leading to a flurry of tries (Ronan x 2, Tallis, Fitzy and Lincoln) to seal the game with a 30-0 win. No surprise with Ronan picking up another MVP award today.

Game 5: Semi Final: Chanel def Our Lady of the Southern Cross Dalby 32 - 0

The team was now deep in the Confraternity Carnival – setting up a do-or-die clash with Our Lady of the Southern Cross, Dalby, with the winner progressing to the 'Big Dance'. The boys battled hard, with Matthew Holzeimer even testing the integrity of his jaw. Ultimately they found themselves staring down the barrel of defeat as they fell 10-0 down early in the First Half. However, Keenan Bamber-Henry had other ideas as he crossed over on the Wing to start the onslaught of tries that were to follow. Bailey Audet and Lachie Black found the line just minutes apart. The boys were firing on all cylinders but then something magical happened. Josh Ambrose Robinson decided to share his magical footwork with the world and cross over the line twice. Chase Gourley crossed the line to finish the game with a 32-10 win. Great work to Caleb Baker for picking up the MVP award.

Game 6: Final: Chanel def Xavier College Hervey Bay 36 – 0. Winners of the Confraternity Cup.

As the tournament was drawing to an end, the boys were out for revenge on Xavier College to bring some silverware home. Nic Holmes and Justin Shaw set the tone early with some hard runs straight up the middle of the ground, which eventually led to a try to Josh Ambrose Robinson, who crossed over in the 2nd minute of the first half. Off the back of some big hits and smooth passing displays (especially from the hands of the ever-consistent Jake Harrington), the boys became absolutely unstoppable racing to a 36-0 Grand Final victory. Tries were scored by Lachie Black, Tallis Stanhope, Bailey Audet, Ronan McGuire (2) and Jordan Long. The team played outstanding football and brought tears of joy to the eyes of the passionate supporters who came to watch this great Chanel team play throughout the week. Well done to Nic Holmes on receiving the MVP award for the match.

Proudly brought to you by two past students who could never pass up an opportunity to watch Chanel College take some big names. It was a pleasure for Joseph Romagnolo and myself, Liam Coleman, to watch the boys do what they do best.
