From the Principal - Dr Susan Bunkum PhD

As Week 2 of Term 3 draws to a close I cannot help but wonder at the many and varied activities that already have us fully occupied. From experience, I know that it is because there is literally so much happening that Terms 3 and 4 seem literally to 'fly by'!

Student reports will be available in the week beginning 30 July. These reports form the basis for the conversations that will take place at the Parent-Teacher Interviews on Tuesday 7 August. I encourage all parents to attend this evening with their sons and daughters, as it provides a valuable opportunity to discuss student progress and to identify ways in which students can consolidate their efforts in the final two terms of the school year.

In our last newsletter, I spoke of my pride in those students who participated in the QISSN and Confraternity Shield Competitions. In this newsletter, I add my message of congratulations to the boys who won the final in the GIO School Boys Cup in Townsville on Friday. Each member of the team, as well as the coaches and support staff, are to be commended for their effort and for this well-deserved result!

I would also like to congratulate all Year 10 students who completed Work Experience placements this week. The feedback from employers has been overwhelmingly positive and our students have been lauded for their eagerness to learn, their punctuality, their preparedness for the workplace, their courtesy, maturity and respect. Special thanks must go to Mrs Leanne Crane for doing all of the work behind the scenes to ensure that each student has a valuable experience of the world of work.

Several other significant events are 'on the horizon'. This week is Catholic Education Week and the theme for this year, 'Discovering New Horizons' has been embraced by the students in our SRC who have been busy planning a different activity for each day of the week.

The Choir is busy rehearsing for the Queensland Catholic Schools and Colleges Music Festival, which will take place in Brisbane on 17 and 18 August. Likewise, preparations for our play for this year, Hating Alison Ashley, are well under way.

As always, I marvel at the wealth of opportunities – both curricular and co-curricular that are available to students at Chanel College. That so much can happen in a small College is testament to the enthusiasm of the students and to the hard work and dedication of the staff. We are truly blessed.

Sincerely

Susan Bunkum

SOS Mass and Youth Gathering

Our Chanel Mass and Youth Gathering is scheduled for 19 August.

Catholic Education Week – 29 July – 4 August

Catholic Education Week is an annual state-wide event that promotes the distinctive mission of Catholic schools throughout Queensland. The week is celebrated by all schools through a range of activities, liturgies and events.

The theme for Catholic Education Week this year, "Discovering New Horizons", has been aligned with the official Year of Youth theme for 2018 and is derived from a speech given by Pope Francis at World Youth Day 2016 where he called young people and the Church to 'open new horizons for spreading joy': 'My friends, Jesus is the Lord of risk, he is the Lord of the eternal "more". Jesus is not the Lord of comfort, security and ease. Following Jesus demands a good dose of courage, a readiness to trade in the sofa for a pair of walking shoes and to set out on new and uncharted paths. To blaze trails that open up new horizons capable of spreading joy, born of God's love and wells up in your hearts with every act of mercy.'

Events during the week will include: a Liturgy, activities organised by the Student Representative Council, CEW Quiz, "Chanel Shirt" Day and all students participating in 'Acts of Kindness' (Pastoral Care/individual activity). We hope this week will be one of celebration.

More information can be found at www.catholiceducationweek.com.au

Year 11 ACTS

Next Wednesday 8 August, eight Year 11 students with Miss McDonaugh will head off to ACTS (A Chance To Serve) Camp at Cooe Bay on the Capricorn Coast. Students from a number of Catholic Secondary Schools in the Rockhampton Diocese will be attending, with sessions being run by Dave Jorna from HATCH. We wish them all the best for the three days of the camp and hope they have a great time returning with many ideas to turn into action as leaders in 2019.

Ignite Conference – 27-30 September 2018

Experience four days of real-world formation, encouragement in faith, great people and powerful worship.

Ignite Conference is a national Catholic youth conference held in Brisbane every September and it draws together a network of high schoolers, young adults, ministry leaders, families, teachers, priests, and religious from around the country, sending them out with a passion for authentic faith in Jesus.

The Conference will be held at the Mueller Performing Arts Centre, 75 Morris Road, Rothwell, Brisbane.

Check out the website <https://igniteyouth.com/info> and if your child is interested in attending, please see Mrs Hore.

Thursday Mass

Thursday 2 August – Mrs Schneider's Year 7B Religion Class

Mass is celebrated in the College Chapel at 10.40 am each Thursday. ALL WELCOME

Please Pray for ...

- People in our community who are grieving the loss of loved ones.
- All members of our college community as we build a future in faith together and for the generations of Chanel students who will be our future.
- Governments and organisations working towards alleviating poverty and bringing justice to many marginalised or forgotten people.

Praise and Thanks for ...

- All people, especially past students of Chanel, who are working in our world to ensure that justice and peace prevail.
- The pioneer women and men who had the foresight and courage to instigate the Catholic Education system that we benefit from today and for those who continue to support it.
- Our students and staff who are involved with many Co-curricular activities serving both Chanel and the wider community.

If you have any requests for either of the above prayers, please leave your request at the Office.

7 Phrases to Avoid When Kids are Anxious

Talking with kids when they are anxious can be hard work for parents and teachers. Sometimes just one word out of place or spoken with the wrong tone of voice can get a child's back up, upset them or make them uncooperative. Here are some common errors and what to say instead:

1. "Build a bridge and get over it!"

The "Come on. Get on with it" approach works with some kids some of the time. We often say this in exasperation, however if a child is genuinely anxious about a coming event or going into a new situation, or is worried about a looming change, then they need someone to understand their worries and fears. "Ahh! I can see you are worried about this" is a far more effective response.

"Support starts by recognising anxiety in children and knowing how to respond appropriately so they know that you are taking them seriously."

2. "This is not worth worrying about. Stop being so silly!"

Similarly, not taking a child's fears seriously or, even worse, making light of them, just doesn't help. Kids need to know somebody understands how they feel.

3. "It'll be right in the morning."

The 'get a good night's sleep' approach has some merit, particularly when a child is catastrophising or continually revisiting the same worries. Sometimes a child's worries do seem better after a good night's sleep. However, to children who genuinely experience anxiety a new day simply offers a new opportunity for feeling overwhelmed by worry and anxiousness. The source of the anxiety needs to be recognised and strategies created for management.

4. "Calm down will you!"

Anxiety can often show itself through high emotion and distress. The natural reaction of many well-meaning adults is to quietly ask an emotional child to calm down. However, a distraught child is likely to misinterpret your calmness for not caring. Often adult calmness in the face of a child's upset just leads to more emotional outburst. Better to match your level of intensity with your child's level of emotion and talk them down. Saying, "Yep, I can see you're upset. That's understandable." at the same intensity and volume that your child uses is likely to be far more effective in bringing down his or her emotions.

5. "OMG! That is horrible!"

It's easy for a parent or teacher to take on a child's anxieties and worries as their own. You can become just as emotional as the child, particularly if an injustice has occurred. Better to take a breath, stand back and be as objective as possible rather than be drawn into the vortex of a child or young person's worries.

6. "You should be worried about that!"

Sometimes we can feed children's anxieties and worries or even create worries that aren't there. Be careful not to foist your own anxieties and fears on children and young people.

7. "Stop being so naughty. Behave yourself."

Many children will act out when they are anxious and nervous so it's quite natural to focus on their poor behaviour without thinking about the reasons behind that behaviour. When you know the triggers for your child's anxiety then you are better placed to recognise anxiousness and respond appropriately.

Parents and teachers are in the best positions to support children and young people when they are anxious. Support starts by recognising anxiety in children and knowing how to respond appropriately so they know that you are taking them seriously and that you can support them both emotionally and practically to achieve what's important to them.

On Thursday morning, six senior students from Chanel competed in the Central Queensland Regional Titration Competition as part of the Australian National Competition. The competition is keenly fought between schools all over Australia, with the best regional teams given the opportunity to compete further, at the state and national levels.

Titration is a relatively simple but technically demanding technique used to determine the concentration of one chemical solution using its reaction with another, of known concentration. Competitors need to develop both fine technique as well as a knowledge of the calculations used. Teams are assessed upon both the accuracy and consistency of their results across all three members of the team. The skills and techniques they learnt will stand them in good stead for the future.

Our congratulations go to the Chanel team members Kieren Conway, Travis Richmond, Sean Mullane, Aimee Kane, Max Woods and Emil Varghese who performed very well but unfortunately did not make it through to the next round.

Vocational Education Learning Pathway Information Evening

Year 10
Information
Evening

Tuesday 31 July 2018

6.00 pm

MC102/3

McAuley Block

There are many Vocational Learning Opportunities at Chanel College for Year 11 and 12 students. These would be students who are not planning a University Pathway [ATAR Pathway].

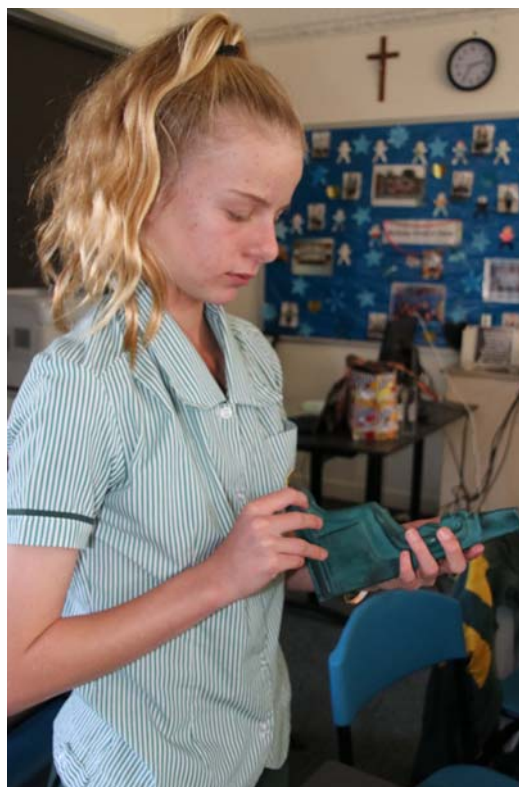

- Studying a Certificate course/courses that is provided by the school
- A certificate course provided by CQU or other outside registered training organisations
- As part of a School Based Traineeship or Apprenticeship
- Engaging in Structured Workplace Learning throughout Year 11 and 12 including during school time.

This evening is only for those Year 10 students and families who are interested in their child completing the Vocational Education Pathway for Year 11 and 12.

Year 7 History

Students in Year 7 History classes have recently been learning about Primary and Secondary sources of historical information. Mrs Staunton provided a range of historical resources for them to view and discuss, with much debate, about whether or not each was a Primary or Secondary source.

2019 Japanese Cultural Immersion

Konnichi wa! We are excited to announce that current Years 9 to 11 students who study Japanese, Modern History or Study of Religion are invited to apply for the 11 day Japanese Cultural Immersion in the 2019 June/July holidays.

Here are just some of the amazing activities in which students will participate:

- Try a variety of unusual and oishii (tasty) foods
- Go shopping in the busy streets of Tokyo, including the mecca of teen culture - Harajuku
- Ride rollercoasters at Universal Studios Japan (and the Wizarding World of Harry Potter)
- Visit a variety of Buddhist temples and Shinto shrines
- Feed sacred deer in Nara and watch as they bow to you for food
- Try their hand at some Japanese cooking and handicrafts
- Visit Hiroshima and see the iconic Peace Memorial
- Experience life in a Japanese high school
- Stay with a host family and experience Japanese hospitality at its best!

To find out more, you are invited to an information evening on Thursday 9 August at 6.00pm, to be held in the College Library.

Important notice regarding parking in Paterson Street

The Manager of Regulatory Services Division for the Gladstone Regional Council has asked that we notify parents that Parking and Enforcement Officers will now be using new technology to detect parking offences around schools in order to ensure the safety of children attending and leaving school. As stated in the letter:

One of the major issues identified by our Parking Officer concerning school zones is the continued parking on designated yellow lines and double parking around school zones. This practice increases the danger faced by students entering and exiting vehicles in these designated "no parking" areas. In the past our officers had to exit the vehicle and individually approach persons illegally parking, who have either driven off immediately or have verbally and physically accosted the parking officer, who is only trying to ensure the safety of your students.

We are now using dash cam technology, which will record the details of offending vehicles parked illegally around the school. This evidence will be collated, the vehicles identified, and infringements issued to the parties concerned.

Consequently, please note that the Council will be starting to utilise this technology and if you are parking illegally or incorrectly around school safe zones, there is a high likelihood that enforcement action will be taken. For the first month, August 2018, infringements will not be issued but warning letters will be issued. However, at the end of August 2018, no further warnings will be issued, and infringement notices will be issued.

Thank you for your cooperation with this request.

Hating ALISON ASHLEY

by Richard Tulloch & Robin Klein

Erica Yurken knew she was destined for a glittering career on the stage. Never in any doubt about her own genius, she felt superior to everyone at notorious Barringa East High. That is, until Alison Ashley turned up - beautiful, rich, clever, and as well-behaved as a nativity angel.

Erica just knew that Drama Night at school camp would provide the ideal opportunity to get the better of Alison Ashley!

Meet the students of Barringa East High including always-in-trouble Barry Hollis and the hopelessly confused Margeart, teachers like dictator Miss Belmont, fresh out-of-uni Mr Kennard and 'stop and smell the capuccino' Miss Latimore and parents like Erica's mum and her boyfriend Lennie, the truck driver/security guard/stud-farming owner of a Mercedes Benz.

Applications open for Year 11 students for UQ Young Scholars 2018

UQ's Young Scholars Program (YSP) provides high achieving secondary school students with an opportunity to discover, learn and engage with UQ's academic community and like-minded students. Designed to nurture and develop future leaders, the Program also presents students with a unique opportunity for academic extension and enrichment.

The 2018-2019 UQ Young Scholars Program involves:

- A five-day Residential Camp at the St Lucia Campus (Sunday 25 November - Thursday 29 November, 2018)
- A YSP Reunion at UQ Open Day (Sunday 4 August, 2019)
- Online engagement activities and networking through the exclusive YSP Facebook group

During their participation in the Program, UQ Young Scholars are challenged to think critically about tomorrow's major global issues and are exposed to a wide range of potential study areas and career opportunities. They will engage in discussions and collaborative forums in group settings and enjoy a range of complementary social, sporting and cultural activities.

We would greatly appreciate your endorsement of applications from Year 11 students who you believe are strong candidates for the UQ Young Scholars Program.

As previously noted, due to the impact of the Commonwealth games on school and university term dates, UQ's Young Scholars Programs will clash with Year 11 exams in some schools. Those schools whose students are unaffected by the changes are strongly encouraged to submit applications by the close date of Friday 10 August.

Financial hardship should not be perceived as a barrier to participation. Program fee waivers and travel bursaries are available for students who are able to provide evidence of financial hardship.

Please visit <https://young-scholars.uq.edu.au/> for more information and to apply. Applications close at 4.00pm Friday, 10 August 2018 and late applications will not be considered.

For further information on how students can benefit from being involved in YSP, please contact the Program Coordinator, Monique Pountney on 07 3365 2835 or youngscholars@uq.edu.au.

Chanel College GIO Schoolboy Cup CQ/NQ Final Winners!

GIO Schoolboy Cup Match Reports and Carnival Summary

Game 1

After a successful Confraternity Carnival, the prestigious green and gold colours were heading up north once again. This time around though, the Chanel contingent set out to do something no Chanel team has ever done before, attempting to become the Northern Series Schoolboy Champions and create a new dynasty of rugby league at the College. The first challenge came within the semi final against Good Shepherd Mount Isa, where the team had a nervous start, but once everybody found their rhythm, the team looked red hot, virtually impossible to stop. The experience and strength of the forward pack proved worthy, as Bailey Audet led our dominant players Nicholas Holmes, Cameron Fitzsimmons and Caleb Baker through the middle of the park, giving the team a 16 point lead at the half. After a motivational halftime chat through the words of coach Chris Anderson, the boys continued what they had already started. The flood gates started to open as Harrison 'Big Red' Rideout crossed the line twice to seal the 52-4 thrashing. The team though was not satisfied with just making the final, and everybody wanted to go the extra mile that not many people thought we could run.

Game 2

Chanel College, a little school from Gladstone, found themselves in a situation to go on and do something some people can only dream of, winning the GIO Trophy Series. To do this, the team firstly had to conquer Trinity Bay from Cairns, a school with over 2000 students. The boys from Cairns were not daunted by the small Chanel outfit, thinking they already had their plane tickets to Brisbane booked. But in the 'David vs Goliath' type competition, the boys showed what they were made of with charges from Craig Flieter, Harrison Rideout and Matt Holzheimer demonstrating the profound Chanel tikka. Off the back of good field position and smart football being played, it didn't take long for the Chanel team to combine and send Tallis Stanhope over for the first points of the game. More points were then scored by Chase Gourley and Jet Cavanagh off the back of brilliant skills by Ronan McGuire to give Chanel the 10 point lead at halftime. For the rest of the game the boys continued to give their 100% effort with Cameron Fitzsimmons scoring arguably the best try of the game directly under the sticks to break the hearts of the Trinity Bay players. The celebrations started as Chanel walked off the pitch winning 32-6, with the name of Chanel College not only engraved into the minds of the Trinity Bay players, but also on the silverware we are bringing back home to Gladstone.

The Chanel College Rugby League team has showed what true teamwork is. Before every game we have ever played, it has never been about the individual, but always about each other, our family and our school. We have only ever played to make others proud, and it is a credit to every individual on this team, because it's memories and friendships like these that we will never forget.

AFL - TIERNEY BURKE

Year 8 Student Tierney Burke has just returned from the North Qld AFL Youth Girls Academy Championships, played in Airlie Beach, representing the Capricornia Cobras.

Along with being Vice Captain, she was awarded the Capricornia Coaches Award.

She was also then selected for the Under 14's North Qld Kookaburras side to compete at the State Academy Championships on the Sunshine Coast in September!

Well done Tierney, congratulations!
