FROM THE PRINCIPAL

I was delighted to have the opportunity to speak with many of our parents and students at the first Parent-Teacher-Student Interview evening on Thursday 2nd May. An occasion such as this, provides a great opportunity for parents and teachers to work together to achieve positive outcomes for student learning and overall student wellbeing. As a College, we place great value on working in partnership with parents to celebrate student success and to identify pathways for future improvements.

There was a definite 'buzz' in the Marian Centre last night and an air of positivity about student engagement in learning. Without doubt, the conversations between parents, students and teachers, will energise students as they make their way through each of their courses during Term 2.

Staff Up-date

Mrs Alison Wales, Assistant Principal – Pastoral Support and Planning is on leave until 25th May. During this time, Ms Kristi Bourke is Acting AP – Pastoral and Miss Sarah McDonough is Acting McAuley House Pastoral Leader.

Mrs Nicole Larney will be on leave for the remainder of this year. Mr Jack Marshall has joined team of Teacher Assistants and Mr Bruce Hodge has joined our grounds staff.

Sincerely,

Dr Susan Bunkum PhD

CHANEL PERSON OF THE YEAR

CHANEL COLLEGE

Justice Respect Compassion

The Chanel Person of the Year is the Principal's Award. A previous Principal, Br. Roger Burke, started this award in the late 1980s. It is a tradition that has been maintained by the Principals since that time. Recipients of this award must have given outstanding service to the College community over an extended period of time. It is not easy to reach the standard required to achieve this award.

To achieve this award, a person must meet all of the following criteria:

- The person must have completed his/her time at the College.
- A current member of the College community must have nominated the person.
- The nomination must be in writing and address all of the criteria other than those relating to financial commitments.
- The level of service must have been extraordinary, significantly above that offered by other members of the community.
- The service must have been of a benefit to a significant proportion of the College community.
- The level of service must have been maintained over a significant number of years.
- The person must have consistently acted as a positive ambassador within the College and the wider community.
- The person must have worked cooperatively with the College administration.
- The person must be a Christian role model that others can be encouraged to emulate.
- The person must not have any outstanding financial commitment to the College.
- The College must not have any outstanding financial commitment to the person involved.

Because of the nature of some of the criteria, the decision is not open for public debate. The Principal's decision is final and binding. Nomination forms are available from the College Office. The decision will be based on the nominations received by the closing date which is Friday 10 May 2019 at 4.00 pm.

CHANEL COLLEGE

This week and next, I have the pleasure of visiting our Catholic Primary Schools to talk to students about enrolling at Chanel College for 2020. With me are past students Darci Whalley, Isaiah Watts, Elizabeth Ariens, Richard Meiring, Jady Nash and Carter King. These students are great examples of how students thrive here at the College. I am very proud of these students for volunteering to talk to the Year 6 students about the wonderful opportunities here at Chanel College. It highlights what is unique and special about the Chanel College community.

The College is a place where staff and parents work together to ensure the wellbeing of all students. It is a place where we encourage students to be respectful, responsible and resilient learners. Most importantly, it is a place where students are able to grow academically, emotionally and spiritually in a safe and caring environment, which fosters excellence and effort. This is why we are special. The enthusiasm of our Year 7 students as they talked about all of the things they loved about Chanel College was based on their experiences so far, and had the younger students eager to see for themselves. They will have this opportunity in a few weeks time. I look forward to welcoming almost 150 primary school students to Chanel College on Chanel Day at the end of May and to walk through this amazing school with them.

God Bless,
Kristi Bourke

Curriculum Matters

At Chanel College our curriculum is evolving to meet the changing needs of our learners and to meet the requirements of the Queensland Curriculum and Assessment Authority. From the start of 2019 we implemented the new Year 11 syllabuses and both students and teachers have embraced the challenges associated with this. We are coming towards the end of Unit 1 and so for our Year 11 teacher and students, the intensity of their learning and assessing is increasing. Our Senior curriculum is structured in Units and these are implemented over 15 week periods. For Year 11 students, Unit 2 will commence in Week 6 of this term and continue until the end of Term 3. We have also introduced a new technologies subject in Year 9 – Designing for the Future with very positive feedback from students. This course is the first step in developing our curriculum pathway to introduce Design and Digital Technologies in Senior in the coming years.

This week, I also spoke to Year 10s regarding their Career Awareness Program. They are currently in the planning stages for Structure Workplace Learning. We are very grateful to local businesses for supporting our students in their career discovery process through work placements. Structured Workplace Learning is compulsory for all Year 10 students and their application forms are due back by 8 May. Students in Year 10 and 12 will also be attending the Careers Expo on the 8 May to support their current career planning processes.

Our Years 7 and 9, students are currently involved in preparations for NAPLAN. As a College we do not intensively work towards NAPLAN as we believe that students are currently developing their literacy and numeracy skills within all their subjects. We will be engaging with the Online NAPLAN Tests and these tests will take place on 15 – 17 May.

FUTUNA FEAST DAY

Glenn Galea - Futuna Pastoral Leader

On Monday Futuna students participated in our Futuna Feast Day. In the morning students participated in a liturgy prepared by Ms Di Bartolo about the life and struggles of St. Peter Chanel, who was martyred on the island of Futuna while preaching the word of Jesus to the inhabitants on the island. Students were challenged to face their adversities and persevere through hard times in the same way as did Peter Chanel. At lunchtime, students and staff members all met for a shared lunch and the cutting of the Futuna Feast Day cake. A special thanks to all of the homeroom parents who helped to contribute to the day especially Scott Reid, Gary Berry, Andrea Lantry and Lyn Cassar, also Helen Versic and Stacy Berry for a lot of running around behind the scenes to help make the day run smoothly.

• On this day in History

In 1945 during World War II more than 1,000,000 German soldiers officially surrendered to the Western Allies in Italy and Austria and Soviet forces won the Battle of Berlin accepting the surrender of General Weidling. This is certainly a timely reminder in the wake of recent ANZAC Day commemorations

• In the Classroom

Australian Geography Competition

In the final week of Term 1, when other students were putting thoughts of examinations behind them and dreaming of holidays, an intrepid group of Years 7, 9 and 12 students were testing their knowledge and skills in Geography.

This 25th annual Australian Geography Competition, with over 65,000 competitors, is a joint initiative of the Australian Geography Teachers' Association and the Royal Geographical Society of Queensland.

Competition Coordinator, Bernard Fitzpatrick said, "With current international affairs, Geography is a vital subject that all young people should study. Understanding place and people, and the socio-economic and environmental interactions at local regional, national and international scales is important to the economic and environment future of Australia."

• Focus on Curriculum

The study of Geography in Senior develops students' knowledge about natural hazards and disasters and how communities can better prepare for them along with issues around urban development, climate change and population growth. At university, students can continue their study of Geography through either a Science or Arts Degree, allowing employment in a range of government and non-government positions tackling major infrastructure and environmental issues facing Australia.

Modern History

Mr John Shield

CHANEL COLLEGE

Justice Respect Compassion

The Cuban Missile Crisis

During thirteen days in October 1962 the world teetered on the brink of nuclear war. All eyes were on the Kennedy White House as JFK, and a group known as EXCOMM (Executive Committee advising the President) struggled to respond to the appearance of intercontinental ballistic missiles on the island of Cuba – the newest Communist revolution on the block.

It is difficult for students to understand the fear and terror inside and outside the White House. Nuclear Strikes, Mutually Assured Destruction and the real possibility of a nuclear war were not theories or hypotheticals – they were reality.

So, the Chanel Modern History class decided to attempt to understand what took place. Happily, our sources were the film Thirteen Days which was based on the tapes JFK made in the Oval Office and meeting rooms during the crisis.

The students, therefore, knew what was said – but it is hard for a 17 year old to tell someone that a nuclear strike is probably the best option. Lots of “that’s crazy!” and “but that will lead to” were heard as students responded to the experience of the nightmare and strange logic of the Cold War. Arguments and laughter were in abundance as Brayden Whalley, our College Captain attempted to lead the free world as JFK. During the crisis JFK consistently referred to his brother Bobby for guidance. Brayden only had Josh Backman, but together they managed to avoid nuclear Armageddon.

Empathy, the ability to understand and share the feelings of others, is a vital skill for any nascent historian. Sure, it helped to put on a black suit and thin tie. Sure, it helped to hold manilla folders with the presidential seal on the front. And certainly, the presence of a rotary phone helped us get back in the 1962 mood. (Not surprisingly, the students were unimpressed with its inabilities take photos.)

Overall, the role play worked effectively. The terrifying thing was that some of that Cold War Dr Strangelove type logic seemed logical. Thankfully it was just a role play.

Thanks to Mrs Turner in Archives for the rotary phone.

Certificate II in Business

Ms Candi Di Bartolo

CHANEL COLLEGE

Students in Certificate II in Business received a visit from Cyndi Ward of ReMax Real Estate. Cyndi spoke to the class about careers in Real Estate, the laws and legislation with which the Real Estate industry needs to comply, and shared interesting insights into her field.

The assessment task for this term is based on the RE industry - dealing with customers, and how to handle workplace information. Cyndi shared examples the students could use, as well as copies of documents and forms relevant to tenants and landlords.

Students and teachers are very grateful to receive support from local businesses to expand knowledge and understanding, and be able to apply these to our classroom scenarios.

Congratulations Ben

It was an honour as the Careers Officer to be invited to witness a past student of Chanel College, Ben Nugent, be presented with his Certificate II in Horticulture, on Tuesday 30 April, at the GECC.

Ben has always had a keen interest in gardening and looked after the College fruit and vegetable garden each day. Ben also had his own mowing maintenance business, as a Careers Officer, I suggested to Ben, that undertaking a Certificate II in Horticulture at CQUniversity would be an interesting avenue of study.

Ben graduated from Chanel College in 2017. He continued the Certificate II at CQUniversity and completed it at the end of 2018. Ben never missed a lesson and the lecturer was very impressed with his commitment and enthusiasm.

We congratulate him on this wonderful achievement and commend Ben for his commitment and determination.

MOTHER'S DAY IDEAL FOR PARENTING HEART-TO-HEART

Gifts and flowers, breakfast in bed – they're all nice, but what Queensland mums really want is more understanding and support from their partner, according to the Triple P – Positive Parenting Program's recent Queensland parenting survey.

Dads, too, may feel unsupported, but it can be hard for couples to know where to start, and nobody wants to argue on Mother's Day.

But here's a tip for fewer arguments and greater cooperation between parents, and between parents and kids: doing Triple P together helps get parents on the same page and reduce conflict. For a Mother's Day gift that's not only free but more meaningful than the usual, sign up for free parenting support or do Triple P Online together:

TALENT IDENTIFICATION SESSION

The Gladstone Swimming Club has a long history of high performance swimmers with many achieving State, National and International success. Head Coach Tom Fronek also has a long and impressive history of performance swimming both locally and internationally, guiding a number of swimmers to the Olympic Games, World Championships, Oceania Championships, European Championships and Pan Pacific Championships and is backed up with national and internationally recognised accreditations.

After observing local school swimming carnivals over the past couple of years, Tom has identified that the Gladstone region has a large number of talented swimmers and we would like to offer them the opportunity to develop their talent in a structured coaching environment.

We are now looking for young, talented swimmers to continue in the pathway of success in competitive swimming and currently have 20 spaces available for swimmers that are serious about their developing in the sport and/or swimmers that would like to take on a new challenge.

We will be holding a Talent Identification Session on 11 May 2019 at the Gladstone Aquatic Centre.

Tom will be looking for body positioning, water feel and confidence in the swimmers and will be utilising our underwater camera for maximum visual results.

Swimmers of all ages are welcomed and encouraged to attend.
